Brownson Nov. 1819

How solemn my dear brother and sister is the idea that we must some part. Perhaps the next time we meet will be in eternity. Before the ban of God there we shall either enjoy eternal blessedness or endure the wrath of God forever. O my dear brother and sister, if we are prepared to meet our God in peace we shall secretly be happy. But my beloved brother and sister how can I be permitted to meet you in heaven and my heart is so prone to sin a guest of God that I am sometimes afraid he will leave me to do remember me in your prayers do not forget me that all these doubts may be removed from me and that my soul may be washed in the blood of Jesus Christ. My we all be washed in that blood which was shed on Calvary for the remission of our sins. This world and at last be permitted to go to your dear brother and sister to the glory of our God where we are blest and are journeying to eternity and meeting you there.
I love you much we feel that the time is short when we shall set down with our dear ones and feel that love which no words can describ. Farewell my dear brother and sister may the Lord go with you and be with you forever.
